

Preparing for the Great Backyard Bird Count

Saturday, January 31, 10:00 AM
Radnor Library Winsor Room

How can you and your family learn about birds and contribute to science? Get involved with the National Audubon Society Great Backyard Bird Count! Steven Saffier from the PA Audubon Society will familiarize you with some of the common winter birds you may see in your backyard and how to participate in the 2015 Bird Count from February 13 to February 16. Raffle for attendees courtesy of Do it Best Hardware.
